On Gatherings

Think of times in your life when you have come together with others for special purposes. Some of these are happy occasions, such as family and holiday celebrations, and some are sad occasions such as funerals.

Name the groups with whom you normally gather:

Name the gatherings that you consider “sacred.”
What makes them “sacred” to you?

Why do we like to come together with others to share good times? How does it help to get the support of others during bad times?
