

Eucharist Parent/Adult Catechesis 5:1

Planning and Preparing

Important occasions demand preparation. Think of events from your own life that called for you to make plans and preparations, as well as events in which you participated, but were not prepared for, or events that were planned by others. Name some of them here:

How is your experience of an event different if you are not prepared for it or if you are not involved in the planning of it?
