A Conversion Experience

Use the following questions to describe an experience of conversion in your life.

Name a time in your life when you moved from one way of thinking, being, or acting toward another. (Examples: from being single to being married, from being impatient to patient, from being childless to being a parent)

What happened that started the change?

---

Who helped you make the change?

---

Did you consult anyone during the process?

---

What did you have to give up?

---

Was it difficult or easy? (explain)

---

What did you gain by changing?

---

If you were to write a slogan for a T-shirt that describes your change what would it be?

---
